

Everybody's Working

---

Not What, But How

Could your work mean more than you realize?

Discussion Questions

1. If you could build one kind of building, what would it be? Why?
  2. Have you ever had a job where all it took to transform it from a bad job into a good job was a different perspective? Discuss.
  3. Jesus didn't immediately call the Apostles to a new "what", but He did call them to a new "how". How might your current work be transformed if you had a new "how"?
  4. Have you ever thought that your work couldn't be "holy" because it was secular work in the world? Knowing that God calls humans to abodah and shamar (and that this is connected with Temple worship), how might that change your perspective?
  5. David's "mighty men" battled because they were called to. Shammah defended a hill of beans. What is the plot of land that God has called you to fight for? Discuss.

God in Real Life

1. God is calling you to a new "how" in your work. What is one way that you could change your work by changing your perspective?

To the Heart

"Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for man."

(Colossians 3:23)
