A Body Like His

We will all be changed...in the blink of an eye. "I believe in the resurrection of the dead." That means your resurrection. God has destined us to get our bodies back at His final coming. But what will those bodies be like? How will they be changed? How will they be new? The answer is hidden in what Christ's body is like.

Discussion Questions

1. If you could go anywhere in the world tonight, where would you go? What would you do there?
 2. Have you ever considered the fact that "your body is you"? How do you react to that truth? Is that exciting or disappointing? What are the implications of that for this life? Share and discuss.
 3. When the Day of the Lord arrives, we will all be raised (either for Heaven or Hell), but we will have to be changed? What are some things that you know will have to be transformed at the resurrection? Discuss.
 4. What are your thoughts regarding the truth that a person is responsible for the way their face looks? If you are comfortable, share how the way the world views your appearance has affected the way you (and the Lord) views your appearance? Discuss.
 5. You will have a fully transformed body, sharing in Christ's transformation: impassability, subtlety, agility, and glory. Which of these is most compelling to you right now? Please share and discuss. (and for Pete's sake, feel free to get excited about how cool that will be!)
 6. This is less about what you will do for God this week and more about what He will do in you. Please share the ways in which you (or others) might carry their glorified wounds forever. Discuss.

God in Real Life

1. This week, surrender your body, your face, your mind, your heart, and your wounds to Christ's victory. It is the only way they will ultimately be changed.

To the Heart

"Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him." (1 John 3:2)
