

Look Like Jesus

---

Whatever

A disciple is a person who lives like Jesus and who sees the world like Jesus. A disciple shares the worldview of Christ and sees all things — others, death, self, purpose...and Good and Evil — as they are.

---

Discussion Questions

1. If you could do whatever you wanted for the next 24 hours, what would you do? Why? Discuss.
  2. The test of a worldview is how it holds up to reality...most specifically the harsher realities of life...like suffering, death, and evil. How well do you think that your worldview faces these hard realities? Please describe.
  3. If we are going to look like Jesus, this will entail being “on guard”. Does the truth that we need to guard our hearts and minds resonate with you? Does something in you rebel against that idea? Discuss.
  4. What is one thing that you know steals your peace and joy in Christ? Do you continue to expose yourself to that thing? Is it your choice or is it out of your control? Why do you think you return to it? Please share your ideas.
  5. Saint Paul calls us to think about whatever is true, good, beautiful, excellence, etc... How do you practice this? Do you find it difficult to live this out in a meaningful way? Please share.
-

God in Real Life

1. This week, take steps to guard against what steals your peace and joy in Christ...and to think on whatever is true and beautiful.
-

To the Heart

“Above all else, guard your heart, for everything you do flows from it.” ~Proverbs 4:23