

Look Like Jesus

Christ's Why

Each one of our lives is made up of any number of “what’s”. But a truly great life is driven by one great “why”. This “why” is the motivation and the vision for a life lived on purpose. The life of Jesus can be summed up in one single great “why”.

Discussion Questions

1. Why are you living where you are currently living/working where you are currently working? Discuss.
 2. What is your focus? Do you find it easy to focus (not just on the current task, but keeping your life oriented and guided by a single principle? Please describe.
 3. Christ’s life was guided by the desire to glorify the Father. This is His primary focus and goal. Does that bother you? Does it inspire you? Discuss.
 4. If you see Jesus’ “why”, you can share Jesus’ “why”. Does living your life in a way that glorifies the Father appeal to you? Does it seem like the “why” that you want to guide your life? Please share your ideas.
 5. The way we give glory to the Father is by doing all of our “what’s” motivated by the “why” of “because the Father asked me to”. Do you value that kind of love that is expressed by obedience to the Father? (I hope you are willing to share.)
-

God in Real Life

1. This week, live the “why” of Jesus: desiring nothing more than the Father’s glory.
-

To the Heart

“By this is the Father glorified, that you become my disciples and bear much fruit..” ~John 15:8