

Behind Enemy Lines

---

Stand

If I live in such a way that I merely follow the crowd, I will find myself praising Jesus on Sunday and crying out for His Crucifixion on Friday. This world is a “not friend” of the Christian. Therefore, we must stand against the world and for Jesus.

---

Discussion Questions

1. Have you ever had to stand up to someone? Please describe... Was it easy? Was it obvious?
  2. We are not called out of the world, but this world is one of the “not friends” of the Christian. Has this been your experience in anyway? Please describe.
  3. Those who live heroic lives are, by necessity, those who stand for something or someone... And you therefore must also stand against. In what way might you be called to take a stand right now?
  4. If I follow the crowd and live like the world, there is no way that will lead me to Heaven. What do you think about this statement? How accurate is it?
  5. The more you are “in the world” the more you will have to take a stand. What is the most common obstacle to taking a stand that you experience? Please share and discuss.
-

God in Real Life

This week, make a decision to stand for Jesus and against whatever is “not friend” to Him.

---

To the Heart

“Jesus cried out in a loud voice, ‘Father, into your hands I commend my spirit’; and when He had said this He breathed his last. The centurion who witnessed what had happened glorified God and said, “This man was innocent beyond doubt.” Luke 23:46-47