

Good...For Nothing?

Refuse to live as salt and light, and the Father remains unknown, unloved, and unglorified.

Discussion Questions

1. What draws you most to God? Truth (intellectual arguments)? Goodness (moral example)? Or Beauty (Catholic imagination)? Do you have any examples?
2. God trusts you to be His representative in the world, to carry His "family name". What about that strikes you?
3. What benefit is there to keeping Him hidden? Why is it that we can sometimes be afraid to stand up for Him to others, to share Him with others? Please share.
4. You can debate an idea, you can debate an opinion, but you can't argue with God's beauty and power. Have you experienced His beauty and power in your own life? Would you be willing to share an example?
5. Do you underestimate what beauty and healing God's Spirit and power can bring from sharing your story with others? Why is that?
6. Have you ever been in a situation where you have let someone else's opinion deter you from sharing your faith? How did you work through that, and what was the result? Please share and encourage one another!

God in Real Life

What is one practical way that I can make Him known, loved and glorified with my friends, family, and co-workers this week? Make a plan and execute it.

To the Heart

"Just so, your light must shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your heavenly Father." Matthew 5:16
